Rep. Brattin honored with the Freshman Legislator of the Year Award

Jefferson City, MO -- To honor and recognize the efforts of Rep. Brattin, R- Harrisonville, for his work this year, Speaker of the Missouri House of Representatives Steven Tilley, R-Farmington, awarded him the Freshman Legislator of the Year Award for 2011. “I firmly believe actions speak louder than words and as an elected official, those actions are crucial to the well-being of our constituents. I commend Rep. Brattin on his actions regarding the protection of Missouri’s 2nd Amendments rights showing firsthand that his actions demonstrate leadership for the people of Cass County,” said Speaker Tilley.

Rep. Brattin sponsored House Joint Resolution 27, which would, by the approval of the voter, change and strengthen our State’s Constitution by protecting our ammunition as well as our arms. We will be the first state in the Union to protect our ammunition constitutionally. Rep. Brattin serves on the following committees: Small Business, International Trade & Job Creation, Children & Families, Corrections and Joint Committee on Terrorism, Bio-terrorism, and Homeland Security.

“I believe it’s vital to protect every aspect of our 2nd Amendment and I will continue to work hard for the 124th District.”
